Faculty Seminar Series
Fall 2015
Main Lounge, Moulton Union
12:00 - 1:00 p.m.

Wed., Sept. 16  Rachel Beane (Earth and Oceanographic Science)
“Super-Volcanoes: Mineral Insights into Large Magmatic Systems”

Tues., Sept. 22  Russ Rymer (English)
“Out of Pernambuco: Extinction, Slavery, and Classical Music”

Wed., Sept. 30  Erika Nyhus (Neuroscience and Psychology)
“Rhythms of the Brain: Dynamic Interactions between Brain Regions during Episodic Memory Retrieval”

Tues., Oct. 6  Eric Chown (Computer Science)
“Ten Years of Robot Soccer at Bowdoin”

Wed., Oct. 14  Mark Wethli (Visual Arts)
“It’s All One Song: A Painter’s Progress”

Tues., Oct. 20  Christian Potholm (Government)
“As Below, So Above: Gods, War and Women Warriors”

Wed., Oct. 28  Scott Sehon (Philosophy)
“Naturalism, Relativism, and Nihilism”

Tues., Nov. 3  Tracy McMullen (Music)

Wed., Nov. 11  Guy Mark Foster (English)
“A Lover’s Touch: Queer Affect, The Racialized Body, and Nostalgia for the Short-lived Hope of a New World”

Tues., Nov. 17  Charles Dorn (Education)
“For Common Ends and for the Common Good: A New History of American Higher Education”

Wed., Dec. 2  Tess Chakkalakal (Africana Studies)
“Unpacking Charles Chesnutt’s Library”

Tues., Dec. 8  Ingrid Nelson (Sociology)
“Where Everybody Knows Your Name: Community Social Capital in Rural Students’ Pathways to College”

Open to faculty and staff. Subject to change.