Students home schooled at any point in their high school careers must complete and submit this form along with their applications.

The admissions committee at Bowdoin College is pleased to consider applicants from qualified home-schooled students and recognizes home schooling as a viable alternative to public/private education. All such applications receive especially careful consideration in our evaluation process. We keep in mind that no two students are alike in their educational experience.

Note: Home-schooled applicants are required to submit SAT I and SAT II or ACT test results. SAT II tests should include Math IC or Math IIC and a science.

Please type, if possible.
