BALDWIN PROGRAM FOR ACADEMIC DEVELOPMENT: Provides support to students including help with reading, time management, organization, general learning strategies, and help in specific courses. Lisa Flanagan, Interim Director, 102B Kanbar x3056 lflanagan@bowdoin.edu

ENGLISH FOR MULTI-LINGUAL SPEAKERS (EMS): Students who are multi-lingual or who have parents who are non-native speakers of English may work with the EMS Advisor. They may seek help with understanding assignments & reading strategies, grammar, outlining, revising, editing, and the conventions of scholarly writing. Tutoring is available by appointment. Contact Lisa Flanagan, Advisor, 102B Kanbar x3056 lflanagan@bowdoin.edu

THE Q (QUANTITATIVE) REASONING PROGRAM: Provides support to students in understanding and using numerical information. Peer tutors provide study groups & some individual tutorials for students in quantitative courses. Drop in hours are available Sunday through Thursday nights in the Center for Learning and Teaching from 7:00 – 10:00 pm during the academic year. Eric Gaze, Director, 301 Kanbar x3135 egaze@bowdoin.edu and Meghan Hubacz, Lecturer, 102F Kanbar x5035 mhubacz@bowdoin.edu

WRITING PROJECT: Students in any discipline work with peer writing assistants to improve their writing process and strengthen their writing. Writing assistants work with students in selected courses, the Writing Workshop, and semester partnerships. To schedule a writing conference in the Workshop go to: www.bowdoin.edu/writing-project during the academic year. Kathleen O’Connor, Director, 102D Kanbar x3760 koconnor@bowdoin.edu

WRITING AND RHETORIC: Encompasses the Writing Project and EMS as well as the First Year Seminar program. Offers workshops for faculty and students; works individually with students on Honors projects and presentations. Meredith McCarroll, Director 102E Kanbar x5056 mmccarro@bowdoin.edu
