

2016 DCS Student Summer Experiences

Sabina Hartnett '18

This summer Sabina worked on the Lumen Project at the Berkman Klein Center for Internet and Society. The Berkman Klein Center is a research center at Harvard University studying and exploring cyberspace through various interdisciplinary approaches. The Lumen Project is one of the many simultaneous projects run by the Berkman Klein Center. Lumen collects and analyzes cease and desist letters concerning online content with the ultimate goals of educating the public and facilitating research about the complaints.

Sabina spent the majority of her time this summer preparing notices for publication, writing blog posts about current events, and maintaining the Lumen Twitter. As a member of the Berkman Klein community, she was also able to learn about and get involved in additional projects at the center.
