

English Majors Beyond Bowdoin

Career Planning
Center

So – what can you do with a liberal arts degree? Just about anything! The question is – what do you want to do? Options are limitless for Bowdoin English majors, as you can tell from the following information. Contact the Career Planning Center for more information and for advice on how to start planning your future and for putting your plan in motion!

Skills

Possible skills you have developed from your English major may include: writing, researching, analyzing, critical thinking, editing, problem solving, processing information, evaluating multiple and diverse viewpoints and attitudes, public speaking, presenting a proposal, planning, creating, articulating an idea or project persuasively, organizing . . .

Destinations of Recent Graduates

English Teacher	Worcester Academy
Event Manager	Woolf Associates
Paralegal	Simpson, Thacher & Bartlett
Editorial Assistant	Town & Country Magazine
Analyst	Morgan Stanley
Communications Associate	Dance Umbrella
Assistant Manager	Talbots, Inc.
Volunteer	Peace Corps
Graduate Student - Architecture	University of CA - Berkeley
Assistant to Director	New York City Opera
Gallery Manager	Judi Rotenberg Gallery
Refugee Life Specialist	Jesuit Volunteer Corps

Current Activities of Alums 5-7 Years Beyond Bowdoin

Assistant District Attorney	Penobscot/Piscataquis Counties
Customer Service Trainer	Amazon.com
Speech Writer	The Commonwealth of Massachusetts
Beauty Editor	O - The Oprah Magazine
Instructor	North Carolina Outward Bound School
Graduate Student	Johnson School of Management
Teacher/Coach	Tabor Academy
Senior Publicist	Simon and Schuster
Production Associate	ABC News - 20/20
Law Student	Boston College Law School
Medical Student	Medical University of South Carolina
Graduate Student - Architecture	University of Tennessee
Program Analyst	KPMG - Peat Marwick
Teacher, Special Education	The Children's Museum
Technical Writer	Global Investment Systems
English Teacher	JET (Japan)
Executive Director	City Year New Hampshire
Caseworker	California Appellate Project

Have more questions about what you can do with a
Bowdoin education?

Come to the Career Planning Center
First floor, Moulton Union