ON CAMPUS EVENTS

Reminder: Marine Technology Society scholarships deadline April 15, 2010

The Marine Technology Society (MTS) offers thousands of dollars worth of SCHOLARSHIPS to high school students, and undergraduate and graduate students who are studying marine science/engineering/technology fields. There are scholarships available for both MTS members and non-members. For a listing of available scholarships and applications, please visit our website: www.mtsociety.org/education/scholarships.aspx.

Please feel free to contact us (michael.hall@mtsociety.org, suzanne.voelker@mtsociety.org, 410-884-5330) with any questions.

The Marine Technology Society is a not-for-profit professional society of ocean engineers, technologists, policy makers and educators. It is dedicated to the development and sharing of information and ideas about marine engineering and technology.

How are YOU committed? (posted 3/1)

How are YOU committed to reducing your carbon footprint? Students, faculty and staff around campus are taking action to reduce their energy use and help Bowdoin reach its goal of carbon neutrality by 2020.

The How are YOU committed short film contest sponsored by the Climate Commitment Advisory Committee (CCAC) is your chance to show the rest of campus what you're doing to help out or what sustainability at Bowdoin means to you. The top five entries will receive prizes and all submissions will be shown at the 2nd Annual Locavore Dinner at Thorne on April 22nd.

1. All films must be submitted by 5:00 p.m. Thursday, April 8th.
2. If you need training, a video editing workshop will be offered April 2 in Coles 2 South. Sign up below.
3. Contest winners will be notified by Friday, April 16th.

Each person who submits a film will receive a "Polar Bears Against Climate Change" T-shirt. Prizes include a one-year membership to Zip Car, a pair of roundtrip Amtrak tickets between Portland and Boston, a Bowdoin travel mug, and a Bowdoin organic grocery bag.

For entry rules, please visit: <http://www.bowdoin.edu/sustainability/student-involvement/climate-matters/>
