Teaching Fellow English Language Proficiency Documentation

Name ____________________________________

Teaching Fellows must obtain a J-1 visa to be able to work in the United States. The U.S. Department of State requires all J-1 appointees to demonstrate both eligibility to work and proficiency in the English language to successfully perform the duties associated with the position and to function on a day-to-day basis within the community.

If you have taken a TOEFL or IELTS exam, please indicate the score you received and attach a copy of the online scoring results. If you have not taken either of these language proficiency exams and you have completed your degree in English, please include an official transcript from your University.
