SINGING OF THE ALMA MATER*

“Raise Songs to Bowdoin”

CAITLIN MCHUGH '07 and PETER ROCCO '07, soloists
MARC DONNELLY '07, pianist

Please stand and join in singing “Raise Songs to Bowdoin.”*
The words are on the back of this program.

The Bowdoin College World Music Ensemble is directed by Daniel Sharp, and includes Sonia Alam '07, vocals; William Medina '07, guitar; Aya Sakaguchi '10, alto saxophone; Elizabeth Lee '10, flute;
Jacob Murray '08, tuba; Chris Gray '09, drums; Rachel Waldman '09, vibes; Adam Cohen-Leadholm '07, cavaquinho;
Joseph Yates '07, electric bass; Julia Smith '07, gonzá; Eric Volpe '08, pandeiro; and Thu-Nga Ho '07, tamborim.

The Bowdoin shield on the cover of this program is derived from the coat of arms of the Bowdoin family. Uses of the design and motto date from at least 1755, by the family of Pierre Baudouin; from before 1811, as James Bowdoin III's bookplate; and since 1894 in Bowdoin publications. The motto, Ut aquila versus coelum, may be translated, “As an eagle [soaring] toward the heavens.”

PRESENTATION OF AWARDS

CRISTLE COLLINS JUDD, Dean for Academic Affairs

SYDNEY B. KAROFSKY AWARD FOR JUNIOR FACULTY

CHARLES DORN, Assistant Professor of Education

This prize, given by members of the Karofsky family, is to be awarded annually by the dean for academic affairs, in consultation with the Appointments, Promotion, and Tenure Committee on the basis of student evaluations of teaching, to an outstanding Bowdoin teacher who “best demonstrates the ability to impart knowledge, inspire enthusiasm, and stimulate intellectual curiosity.” The prize is given to a member of the faculty who has taught at the College for at least two years.

PHI BETA KAPPA

From the Graduating Class

The Phi Beta Kappa Society, national honorary fraternity for recognition and promotion of scholarship, was founded at the College of William and Mary in 1776. The Bowdoin Chapter (Alpha of Maine), the sixth in order of establishment, was founded in 1825. Election is based primarily on scholarly achievement, and consideration is given to the student’s entire college record. The number of students elected each year does not normally exceed ten percent of the number graduating in May. Students elected to Phi Beta Kappa are expected to be persons of integrity and good moral character.

HILLARY PIETRICOLA '07 (GERMANY)

Research Awards: DAWN ELISE RIEBELING '07 (BELGIUM), KAREN TANG '07 (JAPAN)

Fulbright Fellowships provide funding for study or teaching abroad for one year to promote cross-cultural interaction and increase mutual understanding on a person-to-person basis between people of the U.S. and other countries through educational and cultural exchange. Proposals are evaluated based upon the extent to which the candidate and the project might help advance the program's aim

Barry M. Goldwater Scholarship

JOHANNES HEIDE STROM '09

The Barry M. Goldwater Scholarship was authorized by Congress in 1986 to honor Senator Goldwater, who served his country for fifty-six years as a soldier and statesman, including thirty years of service in the U.S. Senate. The purpose of the scholarship program is to provide a continuing source of highly qualified individuals in the fields of science, mathematics, and engineering. Barry M. Goldwater Scholars are students who intend to pursue careers in those fields and are recognized as having outstanding potential.

Keasbey Scholarship

MARY HARTLEY PLATT '07

The Keasbey Memorial Foundation Scholarships offer funding to American students wishing to pursue graduate studies in Great Britain pertaining to their undergraduate study. The scholarship provides the opportunity to experience life in Britain, to forge friendships with British students and those from many other lands, to see something of Europe and lands beyond, to see the United States from a new perspective, and to gain personal insights about oneself that come from living abroad and adjusting to new challenges.

Thomas J. Watson Fellowships

COTTON BARRETT ESTES '07, NIKOLAI VON KELLER '07

The Thomas J. Watson Fellowship Program was created in 1968 by the children of Thomas J. Watson, Sr., the founder of IBM Corporation, and his wife, Jeannette K. Watson, to honor their parents' long-standing interest in education and world affairs and to give college graduates of unusual promise the freedom to engage in a year of independent study and travel abroad following their graduation.

Watson Fellows are chosen on the basis of demonstrated integrity, imagination, strong ethical character, intelligence, the capacity for vision and leadership, the promise of creative achievement and excellence within a chosen field, and the potential for humane and effective participation in the world community.

RAISE SONGS TO BOWDOIN

*Words by K.C.M. Sills 1901
New Lyrics by Anthony Antolini '63
Arr. by Thornton W. Allen*

Raise songs to Bowdoin, praise her fame,
And sound abroad her glorious name;
To Bowdoin, Bowdoin lift your song,
And may the music echo long
O'er whispering pines and campus fair
With sturdy might filling the air.
Bowdoin, from birth, our nurturer and friend
To thee we pledge our love again, again.

While now amid thy halls we stay
And breathe thy spirit day by day,
Oh may we thus full worthy be
To march in that proud company
Of poets, leaders and each one
Who brings thee fame by deeds well done.
Bowdoin, from birth, our nurturer and friend
To thee we pledge our love again, again.
