College offices close for the Thanksgiving break on Tuesday, November 24, at 5:00 p.m. and will reopen on Monday morning, November 30, 2009. Residence halls remain open during this break; however, many students are away for all or part of this long weekend. Please pay extra attention to your own personal safety during this time.

Security is open 24 hours a day, seven days a week. They can contact the Physician-on-Call, Dean-on-Call, or Counselor-on-Call as needed. Security can be reached at the following numbers:

- Emergencies -- x3500 or 725.3500
- Non-Emergencies -- x3314 or 725.3314

Security Reminders

If you are leaving campus over break, be sure to lock your doors and windows before you leave, and take valuable items (cash, passport, checkbook, jewelry) with you. Let people know where you are going, how you plan to get there (personal car, riding with friends, bus, etc), and when you expect to arrive at your destination. If your plan gets altered significantly, call ahead and let those expecting you know things have changed.

If you are remaining on campus, lock your room/suite/apartment door at all times, whether you are at home or not. Call ahead to let friends know when you plan to visit so they can expect you. Be sure to carry your ID at all times, and report any suspicious activity to Security immediately.
