2015 NATIONAL FELLOWSHIP RECIPIENTS

MARSHALL SCHOLARSHIP
The highly prestigious Marshall Scholarship recognizes up to forty US citizens who wish to pursue graduate study in the UK and have the potential to strengthen the enduring relationship between Britain and the United States. Scholars are selected based on their outstanding academic merit, leadership potential, and ambassadorial qualities and receive full tuition, a living stipend, and travel expenses. Graduating seniors and recent graduates are encouraged to apply by early September.

CARNEGIE ENDOWMENT FOR INTERNATIONAL PEACE JUNIOR FELLOWSHIP
The Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, dedicated to advancing cooperation between nations, annually awards ten to twelve one-year fellowships to students with expertise in democracy, nuclear policy, energy and climate, economics, or certain world regions. Recipients work as research assistants to the endowment’s senior associates and receive $37,000. Graduating seniors and recent graduates are encouraged to apply by mid-November.

WATSON FELLOWSHIP
The Watson Fellowship is the one nationally competitive fellowship where passion, not GPA, is the deciding factor. This extraordinary program offers fellows $30,000 to spend twelve months engaged in purposeful, independent travel in international settings new to them to enhance their capacities for resourcefulness, imagination, openness, and leadership and to foster humane and effective participation in the world community. Seniors are encouraged to apply in mid-September.

TRUMAN SCHOLARSHIP
The highly prestigious Truman Scholarship recognizes sixty juniors nationwide for their commitment to public service and exceptional leadership potential. These change agents receive $30,000 toward their graduate studies in addition to leadership training, unique internship opportunities, and access to a powerful network of like-minded individuals. Juniors are encouraged to apply in mid-November.

GOLDWATER SCHOLARSHIP
The prestigious Goldwater Scholarship recognizes the next generation of scientific leaders. With exceptional academic and research records, Goldwater Scholars often plan to pursue doctoral degrees and must be committed to pursuing careers in scientific research. Scholars receive up to $7,500 annually toward their undergraduate expenses. Sophomores and juniors are encouraged to apply in mid-November.

JET PROGRAMME
The Japan Exchange and Teaching (JET) Programme promotes grassroots international exchange between Japan and other nations. Scholars from more than forty countries are placed with local government organizations and participate in either foreign language instruction or international exchange activities. Graduating seniors and recent graduates are encouraged to apply by mid-November.

NATIONAL SCIENCE FOUNDATION GRADUATE RESEARCH FELLOWSHIP
Fellows studying NSF-supported science, technology, engineering, and mathematics disciplines are awarded up to $120,000 for graduate education. Seniors and alumni are encouraged to apply to this prestigious program in early November.

PRINCETON IN AFRICA FELLOWSHIP
Placed with leading organizations throughout Africa, fellows spend a year working in a variety of fields (e.g., public health, education, conservation, civil society, humanitarian aid, etc.). Graduating seniors and recent graduates are encouraged to apply by early November.

PRINCETON IN LATIN AMERICA FELLOWSHIP
Fellows are placed with partner organizations across Latin America and the Caribbean to work on yearlong service projects in areas of education, health, conservation, communications, microfinance, human services, and human rights. Graduating seniors and recent graduates are encouraged to apply by early November.

DAVIS PROJECTS FOR PEACE GRANT
Davis Fellows receive $10,000 to carry out summer-long, self-designed grassroots projects that advance world peace anywhere in the world. This remarkable opportunity is open to all students, including seniors; apply by late January.
