

DEAN OF FIRST-YEAR STUDENTS

JANET LOHMANN

PROFESSIONAL DUTIES

- Advising First-Year students
- Supervises the Assistant Dean of First-Year Students
- Member of the Fellowship and Scholarship Committee
- Member of the Health and Wellness Committee

HOMETOWN

Oreland, PA

EDUCATION

I have a BA in Social Relations & Psychology from Lehigh University; an MA in social Relations & Counseling from Lehigh University and a PhD in Sociology from the UMass, Amherst.

BACKGROUND

I have spent a number of years as a faculty member, most recently in Soc/Anthro at Bowdoin where I taught courses in Criminology, Gender & Race & Ethnic Relations. I continue to engage in my research on women offenders and participate in a number of statewide committees on this topic.

I moved to Maine in 2002 and live in Yarmouth with my husband and three children.

