William D. Ford Federal Direct Parent PLUS Loan Application

Bowdoin parents of dependent students wishing to borrow parent loan money through the federal Direct Loan program must have submitted a 2009-10 federal FAFSA to the federal processor with results forwarded electronically to Bowdoin. If you have not filed a FAFSA for 2009-10, please go to www.fafsa.ed.gov and follow the submission instructions carefully.

Once done, parent applicants should complete this form and submit it through any media to the Bowdoin College Student Aid Office. To complete Direct Loan processing, you should return to www.direct.ed.gov, locate, read and sign the on-line Master Promissory Note (MPN) required of all borrowers. The DL processor will check your credit worthiness and notify you of the results. Loan funds will be disbursed for credit by semester to your Bowdoin College student account.

If you have questions about this form, please call Becky at 207-725-3274 or email rseigars@bowdoin.edu.
