Recent expansion has provided the 118-acre Schiller Coastal Studies Center on the shore of Harpswell Sound with a 4,950-square-foot living and learning building for classes, conferences, and dining. Residential facilities include a shared-use dock and pier, terrestrial laboratory and art studio, a renovated farmhouse, the Leighton Sailing Center, and walking trails.

Directions from campus (approximately 6.5 miles):

Take Isles Drive/ME 223 Harpswell Road for 6.5 miles.

Turn left onto Mountain Road.

Turn right onto Bayview Road.

For a map of the campus, use your phone’s camera.