47%

of Bowdoin students combine two areas of study into a double major or an interdisciplinary major.

#1

Bowdoin's rank (for the third year in a row) out of all undergraduate institutions producing recipients of Fulbright awards.

55%

of Bowdoin students study away. If you receive aid from Bowdoin, that aid can travel with you when you go abroad.

Take it on.

Bowdoin students conduct research with faculty, delve deeply into discussion, and welcome big, new, difficult questions. They are driven by a desire to work together and find the best solutions.

A modern liberal arts education takes whatever you're passionate about and prepares you for what comes next—from what you do after graduation to the impact you can have in a lifetime.

A Bowdoin education is rigorous, but flexible. It's hard work, and it's personal. The curriculum promises to grow your skills as well as your intellect, which is why Bowdoin graduates succeed in so many careers and industries.

number of students who are supported by Bowdoin each year to do research and fieldwork with faculty.

(That makes Bowdoin one of the most active research institutions among liberal arts colleges.)

Now, take a breath.

Your opportunity to be admitted to Bowdoin will never depend on your ability to pay for it.

53%

of incoming Bowdoin students received financial aid.

$68,000

is the average annual aid package awarded to incoming students.

27%

of aided incoming students received full aid, meaning $0 parent and $0 student contributions.

of Bowdoin students receive a MacBook Pro, an iPad, and an Apple Pencil.

Bowdoin is one of only eight colleges in the US that is need blind for every applicant and meets 100% of the calculated need of every student we admit, without using loans in our aid packages.

Your student aid award is calculated to include tuition, housing, food, and a budget for indirect costs—to help you cover things like personal expenses, books, and travel.

“No-loan” means that all of our student aid packages consist of grants and need-based scholarships that never need to be repaid.

Bowdoin waives the application fee for any student applying for aid, or who will be the first in their family to attend college. Estimate your loan-free aid package in five minutes: bowdoin.edu/student-aid/estimate-aid/
