College is expensive. For everyone. Every family situation is unique. And Bowdoin’s approach to student aid is really personal. We’re here to help—even if you haven’t applied yet. Contact us to have your questions answered directly.

WHAT MAKES STUDENT AID DIFFERENT AT BOWDOIN?

• We work with your family starting now and continuing through your entire Bowdoin career.

We calculate your total student aid using the total cost of attending Bowdoin—that means your tuition, fees, and room and board. But it also includes estimates for books and personal expenses, among other things. For 2019–2020, that amount is $73,800. Adding these additional items helps families avoid costly surprises.

We want to admit students who are the right fit for Bowdoin, who will be challenged by this beautiful place, and do good in the world. Because of this commitment, we will spend over $45 million in 2019–2020 making sure that we can provide aid for each student who qualifies. We think that makes Bowdoin better for everyone.

FEELING HOME, AWAY FROM HOME

Bowdoin’s Community Host Program eases the transition to Brunswick and college life by pairing international students with host families in the greater Brunswick area. This connection—which sometimes leads to lifelong friendships—can involve social get-togethers, meals, phone calls, and companionship. Learn more at bowdoin.edu/community-host.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT ORIENTATION

Admitted international students have the opportunity to attend a special program prior to the new student orientation, orienting them to the area and addressing questions or needs specific to their courses of study.
No matter where you are in the world, there are great ways to see what Bowdoin College has to offer.

“I didn’t know what to expect coming from so far away, but I was immediately struck by how kind people were, and how willing everyone was to help me as I made one of the biggest transitions of my life.”

Individuality is celebrated as much as working together, and there is an overwhelming amount of support wherever you go. It was nice to find that despite its high academic rigor, students are not trying to compete against each other; on the contrary, they advocate for one another’s success.”
