

AF/AM/50

EXHIBITION TOURS AND TALKS

September 4–December 21, 2019
Second Floor Gallery / Hawthorne-Longfellow Library

FRIDAY

2:15 p.m. – 3:15 p.m.

Tour of the Bowdoin College Museum of Art

Pavilion, Bowdoin College Museum of Art

Join Co-Director Frank Goodyear and Curatorial Assistant Elizabeth Humphrey '14 for a tour of African/American: Two Centuries of Portraits, Art Purposes: Object Lessons for the Liberal Arts, and The Art of David C. Driskell H'89 and the Art That Inspires Him.

2:15 p.m. – 3:15 p.m.

Bowdoin College Library Exhibit Talk: Tension/Tenacity: Africana Studies at 50

Second Floor Gallery, Hawthorne-Longfellow Library

Join Special Collections Education and Outreach Librarian Marieke Van Der Steenhoven and Curator Lucia Ryan '19 for a conversation about the library's fall 2019 exhibit.

2:15 p.m. – 3:15 p.m.

Tour of the Arctic Museum Exhibition: Matthew Alexander Henson, First African American at the North Pole

Foyer and Gallery A, Peary-MacMillan Arctic Museum

Matthew Henson spent years exploring the Arctic with Robert E. Peary, Class of 1877. Recognition for his remarkable career came much later in life.

SATURDAY

9:00 a.m. – 10:00 a.m.

Tour of the Bowdoin College Museum of Art

Pavilion, Bowdoin College Museum of Art

Join Co-Director Frank Goodyear and Curatorial Assistant Elizabeth Humphrey '14 for a tour of African/American: Two Centuries of Portraits, Art Purposes: Object Lessons for the Liberal Arts, and The Art of David C. Driskell H'89 and the Art That Inspires Him.

9:00 a.m. – 10:00 a.m.

Bowdoin College Library Exhibit Talk: Tension/Tenacity: Africana Studies at 50

Second Floor Gallery, Hawthorne-Longfellow Library

Join Special Collections Education and Outreach Librarian Marieke Van Der Steenhoven and curator Lucia Ryan '19 for a conversation about the library's fall 2019 exhibit.

9:00 a.m. – 10:00 a.m.

Tour of the Arctic Museum Exhibition: Matthew Alexander Henson, First African American at the North Pole

Foyer and Gallery A, Peary-MacMillan Arctic Museum

Matthew Henson spent years exploring the Arctic with Robert E. Peary, Class of 1877. Recognition for his remarkable career came much later in life.

Top image: Shapes in the Sky During Rainy Season, 1974, mixed media on denim, Twins Seven-Seven, Nigerian, 1944–2011. Second image: promotional poster for tension/tenacity exhibition. Third image: David C. Driskell. Bottom image: Donald Baxter MacMillan, Matthew Henson on Deck by Sledges, aboard the SS Roosevelt at Battle Harbour, Labrador, September 1909. Gift of Donald and Miriam MacMillan.

Bowdoin