

What Can You See?

The hunting scenes on this walrus ivory pipe were incised into the carved ivory tusk by an Iñupiat (North Alaskan Inuit) artist, who then rubbed a dark pigment into the incised lines. Take a close look at the detailed scenes on this pipe and see if you can find everything in the list below. Put a check mark in the box beside each item when you find it.

Unidentified Iñupiat Artist, Ivory Pipe, Alaska, late 19th century. Ivory and pigment. Museum purchase.
