ANNOUNCING 2020-2021 PAID INTERNSHIPS

The National Gallery of Art is pleased to announce 2020-2021 internship opportunities. We invite you to view current internship information, especially the differing requirements for each opportunity, on the web pages below. The application portal can be accessed from the web page for each internship.

The application deadline for all opportunities is January 12, 2020. Summer Interns are in residence from June 1, 2020 to July 31, 2020. Interns in the Museum Profession, Graduate Curatorial Interns, and John Wilmerding Interns in American Art and in Digital Interpretation are in residence between September 14, 2020 and May 7, 2021.

Summer Internships
For currently enrolled graduate students of all levels and those graduating in May or June 2020 with a relevant degree. Nine-week internships provide opportunities to work on projects directed by a Gallery curator or department head in all subject areas.
