The Latin text quoted on the preceding page has introduced Bowdoin's Commencement Program since August 21, 1822. The names of the twenty-four graduates of the Class of 1822 were, for the most part, also translated into Latin for the program. In the early years of the College, each graduating senior was required to deliver a Commencement "part," an oration on ancient or modern topics, which was frequently given in one of the classical languages, Latin, Greek, or Hebrew. The final Latin oration was given in 1893, but the tradition of Latin survives in the language used to dedicate the Commencement Exercises and to confer the bachelor of arts degree. The translation below was provided by Jennifer Clarke Kosak, Associate Professor of Classics.

May it be good, felicitous, and well-omened:*

To Paul LePage, esteemed Governor;

to the Representatives and Senators who personally preside over the arts and letters for the State of Maine;

and to the honorable and respected Trustees of Bowdoin College;

to Clayton Rose, distinguished President;

to the entire academic senate; to the venerable religious leaders;

in short, to all patrons of the human race everywhere,

the young people hereby initiated into the arts and letters most humbly dedicate these exercises.

Held in a gathering of Bowdoin College, in Brunswick, in the State of Maine, on the sixth day before the Kalends of June, in the 2017th year of our well-being and in the 241st year of the authority of the United States of America.

* An ancient Roman formula used at the outset of a ritual to ensure its success.

DEGREES

This ancient formula is used by the President in conferring degrees:

Candidati pro gradu baccalaureali, assurgite.

Femina honoranda, hosce iuvenes, quos censeo idoneos primum ad gradum in artibus, nunc tibi offero, ut a te instructus, eos ad gradum istum admittam. Placetne? (Placet.)

Pro auctoritate mihi commissa, admitto vos ad primum gradum in artibus, et dono et concedo omnia iura, privilegia, honores atque dignitates, ad gradum istum pertinentia.

In cuius testimonium hasce membranas litteris scriptas accipite.

Candidates for the Baccalaureate degrees will rise.

(To the Chair of the Board of Trustees)

Honored madam, these young people whom I deem worthy of the first degree in Arts, I now present to you, that, if you so direct, I may admit them to that degree. Is such your will? (It is.)

(To the Candidates)

By virtue of the authority vested in me, I now admit you to the first degree in Arts and do grant and confer upon you all the rights, privileges, honors, and dignities pertaining to that degree.

In witness whereof, receive these diplomas.

NOTE: The Baccalaureate degrees are awarded individually, and the graduating class requests that there be no applause until the last degree is conferred.

At the Commencement Exercises, Bowdoin displays the College flag and the flags of the United States of America, the State of Maine, and the home or dual-citizenship countries or territories of graduating students—in 2017, Austria, Bangladesh, Belgium, Brazil, Canada, People's Republic of China, Colombia, Cuba, Denmark, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, Estonia, France, Republic of Georgia, Germany, Guinea, Haiti, Hong Kong SAR, India, Ireland, Italy, Japan, Jordan, Kenya, Lebanon, Mexico, Netherlands, Pakistan, Peru, Poland, Portugal, Republic of Korea, South Sudan, Spain, Switzerland, Thailand, Tunisia, Turkey, United Kingdom, Vietnam, and Zimbabwe.

HONORANDS OF THE 2017 COMMENCEMENT

ANTHONY E. DOERR '95, Doctor of Letters (LittD)

Anthony Doerr '95 is a writer whose second novel, All the Light We Cannot See, was awarded the 2015 Pulitzer Prize for Fiction and the 2015 Andrew Carnegie Medal for Excellence in Fiction. Born and raised in Cleveland, Ohio, Doerr graduated from Bowdoin cum laude in 1995, where he was a history major. He received a master of fine arts degree in creative writing from Bowling Green University in 1999. He is the author of two short story collections, The Shell Collector (2002) and Memory Wall (2010), the memoir Four Seasons in Rome (2007), and two novels, About Grace (2004) and All the Light We Cannot See (2014). His short stories and essays have won four O. Henry Prizes and have been included in several important anthologies of short stories and contemporary fiction. Critical acclaim for Doerr's writing has come in the form of many awards and prizes: the Barnes & Noble Discover Prize, the Rome Prize, four Pushcart Prizes, a Guggenheim Fellowship, an NEA Fellowship, the National Magazine Award for Fiction, four Ohioana Book Awards, two Pacific Northwest Book Awards, the prestigious 2010 Story Prize, and the Sunday Times EFG Short Story Award. Doerr lives in Idaho with his wife, Shauna E. Doerr '94, and their two sons.

HANNA HOLBORN GRAY, Doctor of Humane Letters (LHD)

Hanna Holborn Gray is the Harry Pratt Judson Distinguished Service Professor Emeritus of History and president emerita, University of Chicago. She led the University from 1978 to 1993, and was the first woman to be full president of a major university in the United States. Born in Germany, she and her family fled Nazi Germany to America. She graduated from Bryn Mawr College, was a Fulbright Scholar at Oxford, and earned a PhD from Harvard. Dr. Gray is a distinguished scholar of humanism, political and historical thought, and the history and politics of the Renaissance and Reformation, and she has been an outstanding leader and administrator as a dean, a provost, and university president. She has been a director, board member, or trustee for many institutions, including Harvard, Yale, the Smithsonian Institution, the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation, and many others, and she served as the board chair for the Howard Hughes Medical Institute. In 1986 she received a Medal of Liberty award from President Ronald Reagan, and in 1991 she received the Presidential Medal of Freedom, the nation's highest civilian honor, from President George H.W. Bush.

FATUMA HUSSEIN, Doctor of Humane Letters (LHD)

Fatuma Hussein is the founder and executive director of the Immigrant Resource Center of Maine (formerly the United Somali Women of Maine). Born in Somalia, the oldest of thirteen children, Hussein lived in a Kenyan refugee camp after civil war broke out in Somalia in 1991. She moved to Atlanta, Georgia, in 1993, where she attended high school. Seeking relief from congestion and crime in urban Atlanta, she moved with her family to Maine, eventually settling in the Lewiston-Auburn area. While there were many French-speaking West Africans living in the area, Somalis and other immigrants from Africa faced additional challenges—of culture, religion, and language. In response to an open letter from the mayor of Lewiston asking members of the Somali community to discourage relatives from resettling in the area, Hussein began her efforts to build bridges within the community. Beginning as a refugee center in 2001, the Immigrant Resource Center of Maine now provides housing resettlement services and helps families navigate a complex landscape of local, state, and federal regulations so that the talents and abilities of Maine's immigrant community can best serve the common good.

CHARLES A. LEAVELL, Doctor of Humane Letters (LHD)

A largely self-taught keyboardist, Charles A. (Chuck) Leavell started his first band at the age of fourteen and became a session musician at fifteen. He performed with Dr. John, The Marshall Tucker Band, and Gregg Allman and joined The Allman Brothers Band in 1972. His playing can be heard on the works of Eric Clapton, the Rolling Stones, The Black Crowes, the Indigo Girls, and many other artists. In 1982 he became keyboardist and musical director for the Rolling Stones, a position he still holds. With The Allman Brothers Band, he received a Lifetime Achievement Grammy Award in 2012. Leavell became a tree farmer in the early 1980s, when his wife, Rose Lane Leavell, inherited land in Georgia. Together they created Charlane Plantation, a 2,500-acre tree farm and hunting preserve. The Leavells are two-time winners of the Georgia Tree Farmers of the Year and in 1999 were named National Outstanding Tree Farmers of the Year. The author of several books on forestry and an autobiography of his life in music, Leavell cofounded The Mother Nature Network, an environmental news and information website, and was made an Honorary Forest Ranger by the United States Forest Service.

ACADEMIC APPAREL

The formal academic attire that distinguishes faculty and graduates at academic ceremonies is a symbol at once vertical and horizontal. It stretches back into history, to the roots of academic institutions, while at the same time it forms a bond of union among contemporary academic scholars.

The gown, cap, and hood, which would certainly seem quaint today if worn on our city streets, were originally the ordinary apparel of our medieval ancestors. The gowns varied in elegance according to the rank and wealth of the owners, and the hood had the practical function of being pulled over the head for warmth. Many of the medieval universities had strict rules on the subject; at Oxford, for example, the master of arts had to swear that he owned the dress prescribed for his degree and that he would wear it on all proper occasions. Undergraduates were required to wear their gowns whenever they appeared in the public street. After the sixteenth century in Europe different styles prevailed, but the older style was retained for certain legal, official, clerical, and, especially, academic uses.

In America the gown has been used to some extent since colonial times. It was only in the late nineteenth century, however, that widespread interest—sparked perhaps by the observance in 1886 of the 250th anniversary of the founding of Harvard—brought about several developments. In 1887 an enterprising member of the graduating class of Williams College designed academic gowns for the graduates to wear at the Commencement ceremony. The garb was significant and dignified; it was both traditional and democratic; it answered a need, and it quickly became popular. In 1895 an intercollegiate code, standardizing the design and the color of each part of the academic regalia, was accepted by nearly all American colleges and universities.

The gown is usually black, and the cut of the sleeves differs for bachelors, masters, and doctors. In addition, the doctor's gown has panels of velvet (usually black) down the front and on the sleeves.

The cap is generally black, with a tassel, which is either black or the color of the field of study; a doctor's may be gold. The most common style of cap is the Oxford "mortar board," with a square flat top, but some variations are permitted.

The hood is the most distinctive part of the costume. It is made of black and trimmed with velvet. Both the length of the hood and the width of the trim vary with the level of the degree, the doctor's being the longest and having the widest velvet border. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study in which the degree is earned: for example, white for arts and letters (bachelor of arts), dark blue for philosophy, brown for fine arts, golden yellow for science, scarlet for theology. The lining of the hood is the color and style of the university that confers the degree; these are all specified in the standard code of the American Council on Education. Bowdoin College's lining is white and green to symbolize the Bowdoin pines.

Whatever the degree or university, those who don the gown and hood symbolically take their places in the long procession of scholars who have pursued truth and learning and passed it on to others. The consciousness of that fellowship is at once a reward for past efforts and an inspiration for the future.

RAISE SONGS TO BOWDOIN

Words by K. C. M. Sills, Class of 1901

New Lyrics by Anthony Antolini '63

Music by C. T. Burnett

Arranged by Thornton W. Allen

Raise songs to Bowdoin, praise her fame,
And sound abroad her glorious name;
To Bowdoin, Bowdoin lift your song,
And may the music echo long
O'er whispering pines and campus fair
With sturdy might filling the air.
Bowdoin, from birth, our nurturer and friend
To thee we pledge our love again, again.

While now amid thy halls we stay
And breathe thy spirit day by day,
Oh may we thus full worthy be
To march in that proud company
Of poets, leaders and each one
Who brings thee fame by deeds well done.
Bowdoin, from birth, our nurturer and friend
To thee we pledge our love again, again.
