The Latin text quoted above has introduced Bowdoin's Commencement Program since August 21, 1822. The names of the 24 graduates of the Class of 1822 were, for the most part, also translated into Latin for the program. In the early years of the College, each graduating senior was required to deliver a Commencement "part," an oration on ancient or modern topics, which was frequently given in one of the classical languages, Latin, Greek, or Hebrew. The final Latin oration was given in 1893, but the tradition of Latin survives in the language used to dedicate the Commencement Exercises and to confer the bachelor of arts degree. The translation below was provided by Barbara Weiden Boyd, Henry Winkley Professor of Latin and Greek.

May it be good, felicitous, and well-omened:

[an ancient Roman formula used at the outset of a ritual to ensure its success]

To John Baldacci, esteemed Governor; to the Representatives and Senators who personally preside over the arts and letters for the State of Maine;
and to the honorable and respected Trustees of Bowdoin College;
to Barry Mills, distinguished President;
to the entire academic senate; to the venerable religious leaders;
in short, to all patrons of the human race everywhere,
the young people hereby initiated into the arts and letters most humbly dedicate these exercises.

Held in a gathering of Bowdoin College, in Brunswick, in the State of Maine, on the seventh day before the Kalends of June, in the 2007th year of our well-being and in the 231st year of the authority of the United States of America.

DEGREES

This ancient formula is used by the President in conferring degrees:

Candidati pro gradu baccalaureali, assurgite.

Vir honorande, hosce juvenes, quos censeo idoneos primum ad gradum in artibus, nunc tibi offero, ut a te instructus, eos ad gradum istum admittam. Placetne? (Placet.)

Pro auctoritate mihi commissa, admitto vos ad primum gradum in artibus, et dono et concedo omnia jura, privilegia, honores atque dignitates, ad gradum istum pertinentia.

In cujus testimonium hasce membranas litteris scriptas accipite.

Candidates for the Baccalaureate degrees will rise.

(To the Chair of the Board of Trustees) Honored sir, these young people whom I deem worthy of the first degree in Arts, I now present to you, that, if you so direct, I may admit them to that degree. Is such your will? (It is.)

(To the Candidates) By virtue of the authority vested in me, I now admit you to the first degree in Arts and do grant and confer upon you all the rights, privileges, honors, and dignities pertaining to that degree.

In witness whereof, receive these diplomas.

NOTE: The Baccalaureate degrees are awarded individually, and the graduating class requests that there be no applause until the last degree is conferred.

At the Commencement Exercises, Bowdoin displays the College flag and the flags of the United States of America, the State of Maine, and the home or dual-citizenship countries or territories of graduating students—in 2007, Australia, Brazil, Bulgaria, Canada, Czech Republic, Dominican Republic, El Salvador, France, Germany, Ghana, Israel, Italy, Jamaica, Japan, Lebanon, Mexico, Pakistan, People's Republic of China, Poland, Republic of Korea, Sweden, Switzerland, Thailand, The Netherlands, Turkey, and United Kingdom.

HONORANDS OF THE 2007 COMMENCEMENT

GEOFFREY CANADA '74
DOCTOR OF HUMANE LETTERS (L.H.D.)

Geoffrey Canada, president/CEO of the Harlem Children's Zone, is a visionary educator and advocate for children and community redevelopment. He grew up in the South Bronx, graduated from Bowdoin in the class of 1974, and earned a master's degree in education at Harvard University in 1975. In 1983 he began working in New York with the Rheedlen Centers for Children and Families, an inner-city human services agency, and became president/CEO in 1990. The Harlem Children's Zone initiative was launched in 1997 in a sixty-block area of central Harlem to provide children and their families with the kinds of support and resources that can transform lives and communities. U.S. News and World Report named Canada one of "America's Best Leaders" in 2005. Last year New York City Mayor Michael Bloomberg chose him to be co-chair of a task force assigned to reduce poverty in the city. He is the recipient of the Heinz Award in the Human Condition, a 2005 Liberty Medal, and Bowdoin's 1993 Common Good Award. He was elected an overseer of the College in 1995, trustee in 1996, and trustee emeritus in 2006.

ROBERTO DÍAZ
DOCTOR OF MUSIC (MUS.D.)

Roberto Díaz is an internationally renowned violist and the president and CEO of the Curtis Institute of Music in Philadelphia. A native of Chile, he is the oldest of three siblings who attended the New England Conservatory of Music. He is the former principal violist of the National Symphony Orchestra and the Philadelphia Orchestra, and was a member of the Boston Symphony Orchestra and the Minnesota Orchestra. He has received numerous awards, including prizes at the Naumburg and Munich international viola competitions. His 2006 recording of Viola Transcriptions by William Primrose was nominated for a Grammy Award. An active chamber musician, he is a member of the Díaz Trio, which has toured the United States, Canada, Europe, Mexico, Chile, and China. The Trio was one of two ensembles invited by Isaac Stern to participate in a special concert celebrating the next one hundred years of music making at Carnegie Hall. He has served on the faculty at the Curtis Institute of Music, the Peabody Institute, and Rice University.

STANLEY F. DRUCKENMILLER '75
DOCTOR OF HUMANE LETTERS (L.H.D.)

Stanley F. Druckenmiller is chairman, CEO, and founder of Duquesne Capital Management in New York City, and a member of the Bowdoin class of 1975. His extraordinary record of success in the world of finance is matched by a remarkable record of philanthropy—at his alma mater and elsewhere. He was elected overseer of the College in 1991, trustee in 1996, and trustee emeritus in 2002. During his service on the Governing Boards, he helped shape the College's investment policies in ways that have increased endowment yields significantly. His gift to build Stanley F. Druckenmiller Hall, named for his grandfather (a physician in Pennsylvania for many years), gave a tremendous boost to the sciences at Bowdoin. There is also a Stanley F. Druckenmiller Professorship in Environmental Studies, a Druckenmiller Professorship in Asian Culture, and a Druckenmiller Scholarship Fund at Bowdoin. He is chairman of the board of the Harlem Children's Zone and serves on the boards of the Robin Hood Foundation, the Children's Scholarship Fund, and Memorial Sloan-Kettering.

DREW GILPIN FAUST
DOCTOR OF HUMANE LETTERS (L.H.D.)

Eminent historian and outstanding academic leader Drew Gilpin Faust, who has served since 2001 as the founding dean of the Radcliffe Institute for Advanced Study, was elected the twenty-eighth president of Harvard University in February 2007 and will assume her post July 1. She earned her undergraduate degree at Bryn Mawr College and master's and doctoral degrees in American civilization at the University of Pennsylvania. She served on the faculty of the University of Pennsylvania for twenty-five years before moving to Harvard, where she is Abraham Lincoln Professor of History and of African and African American Studies. She is the author of five books, including Mothers of Invention: Women of the Slaveholding South in the American Civil War, for which she won the Francis Parkman Prize in 1997. She is a trustee of Bryn Mawr College, the Andrew Mellon Foundation, and the National Humanities Center, and serves on the educational advisory board of the Guggenheim Foundation. She served as president of the Southern Historical Association, vice president of the American Historical Association, and executive board member of the Organization of American Historians and the Society of American Historians.

ANGUS S. KING, JR.
DOCTOR OF LAWS (LL.D.)

Angus S. King, Jr., was elected Maine's seventy-first governor in 1994 and was reelected in 1998 by one of the largest margins of victory in the state's history. He was one of only two independent governors in the country. During his term in office, he oversaw the largest increase of lands in conservation in the state's history and launched a nationally recognized program to provide laptop computers to every seventh- and eighth-grade student in the state. A graduate of Dartmouth College, he earned a law degree at the University of Virginia Law School, and began his career in Maine as a staff attorney for Pine Tree Legal Assistance in Skowhegan. He served as chief counsel to the U.S. Senate Subcommittee on Alcoholism and Narcotics in the office of then-Senator William D. Hathaway. He served as vice president and general counsel of Swift River-Hafslund Company; founded and served as president of Northeast Energy Management, Inc.; and hosted the television show Maine Watch for almost twenty years. A Distinguished Lecturer at Bowdoin since 2004, he was recently a visiting fellow at the Institute of Politics at the Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University.

HONORS IN MAJOR SUBJECTS

The departments of Art, Biology, Chemistry, English, Geology, History, Mathematics, Music, Psychology, Romance Languages, and Sociology and Anthropology, and the Biochemistry, Environmental Studies, Gender and Women's Studies, Latin American Studies, and Neuroscience programs award only one level of departmental honors. Other departments award honors at the levels of Highest Honors, High Honors, and Honors, and the recipients are so designated.

ANTHROPOLOGY

Honors

ACADEMIC APPAREL

The formal academic attire that distinguishes faculty and graduates at academic ceremonies is a symbol at once vertical and horizontal. It stretches back into history, to the roots of academic institutions, while at the same time it forms a bond of union among contemporary academic scholars.

The gown, cap, and hood, which would certainly seem quaint today if worn on our city streets, were originally the ordinary apparel of our medieval ancestors. The gowns varied in elegance according to the rank and wealth of the owners, and the hood had the practical function of being pulled over the head for warmth. Many of the medieval universities had strict rules on the subject; at Oxford, for example, the master of arts had to swear that he owned the dress prescribed for his degree and that he would wear it on all proper occasions. Undergraduates were required to wear their gowns whenever they appeared in the public street. After the sixteenth century in Europe different styles prevailed, but the older style was retained for certain legal, official, clerical, and, especially, academic uses.

In America the gown has been used to some extent since colonial times. It was only in the late nineteenth century, however, that widespread interest—sparked perhaps by the observance in 1886 of the 250th anniversary of the founding of Harvard—brought about several developments. In 1887 an enterprising member of the graduating class of Williams College designed academic gowns for the graduates to wear at the Commencement ceremony. The garb was significant and dignified; it was both traditional and democratic; it answered a need, and it quickly became popular. In 1895 an intercollegiate code, standardizing the design and the color of each part of the academic regalia, was accepted by nearly all American colleges and universities.

The gown is usually black, and the cut of the sleeves differs for bachelors, masters, and doctors. In addition, the doctor's gown has panels of velvet (usually black) down the front and on the sleeves.

The cap is generally black, with a tassel, which is either black or the color of the field of study; a doctor's may be gold. The most common style of cap is the Oxford "mortar board," with a square flat top, but some variations are permitted.

The hood is the most distinctive part of the costume. It is made of black and trimmed with velvet. Both the length of the hood and the width of the trim vary with the level of the degree, the doctor's being the longest and having the widest velvet border. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study in which the degree is earned: for example, white for arts and letters (bachelor of arts), dark blue for philosophy, brown for fine arts, golden yellow for science, scarlet for theology. The lining of the hood is the color and style of the university that confers the degree; these are all specified in the standard code of the American Council on Education. Bowdoin College's lining is white and green to symbolize the Bowdoin pines.

Whatever the degree or university, those who don the gown and hood symbolically take their places in the long procession of scholars who have pursued truth and learning and passed it on to others. The consciousness of that fellowship is at once a reward for past efforts and an inspiration for the future.

RAISE SONGS TO BOWDOIN

Words by K.C.M. Sills, Class of 1901

New Lyrics by Anthony Antolini '63

Music by C. T. Burnett

Arr. by Thornton W. Allen

Raise songs to Bowdoin, praise her fame,
And sound abroad her glorious name;
To Bowdoin, Bowdoin lift your song,
And may the music echo long
O'er whispering pines and campus fair
With sturdy might filling the air.
Bowdoin, from birth, our nurturer and friend
To thee we pledge our love again, again.

While now amid thy halls we stay
And breathe thy spirit day by day,
Oh may we thus full worthy be
To march in that proud company
Of poets, leaders and each one
Who brings thee fame by deeds well done.
Bowdoin, from birth, our nurturer and friend
To thee we pledge our love again, again.
