The Latin text quoted on the preceding page has introduced Bowdoin's Commencement Program since August 21, 1822. The names of the 24 graduates of the Class of 1822 were, for the most part, also translated into Latin for the program. In the early years of the College, each graduating senior was required to deliver a Commencement "part," an oration on ancient or modern topics, which was frequently given in one of the classical languages, Latin, Greek, or Hebrew. The final Latin oration was given in 1893, but the tradition of Latin survives in the language used to dedicate the Commencement Exercises and to confer the bachelor of arts degree. The translation below was provided by Barbara Weiden Boyd, Henry Winkley Professor of Latin and Greek.

May it be good, felicitous, and well-omened:*
 To Paul LePage, esteemed Governor;
 to the Representatives and Senators who personally preside over the arts and letters for the State of Maine;
 and to the honorable and respected Trustees of Bowdoin College;
 to Barry Mills, distinguished President;
 to the entire academic senate; to the venerable religious leaders;
 in short, to all patrons of the human race everywhere,
 the young people hereby initiated into the arts and letters
 most humbly dedicate these exercises.

Held in a gathering of Bowdoin College, in Brunswick,
 in the State of Maine,
 on the eighth day before the Kalends of June, in the 2013th year of our well-being and in the 237th year of the authority of the United States of America.

* An ancient Roman formula used at the outset of a ritual to ensure its success.

DEGREES

This ancient formula is used by the President in conferring degrees:

Candidati pro gradu baccalaureali, assurgite.

Vir honorande, hosce iuvenes, quos censeo idoneos primum ad gradum in artibus, nunc tibi offero, ut a te instructus, eos ad gradum istum admittam. Placetne? (Placet.)

*Pro auctoritate mihi commissa, admitto vos ad primum gradum in artibus, et dono et concedo omnia iura, privilegia, honores atque

In cuius testimonium hasce membranas litteris scriptas accipite.

Candidates for the Baccalaureate degrees will rise.

(To the Chair of the Board of Trustees)

Honored sir, these young people whom I deem worthy of the first degree in Arts, I now present to you, that, if you so direct, I may admit them to that degree.
 Is such your will? (It is.)

(To the Candidates)

By virtue of the authority vested in me, I now admit you to the first degree in Arts and do grant and confer upon you all the rights, privileges, honors, and dignities pertaining to that degree.

In witness whereof, receive these diplomas.

NOTE: The Baccalaureate degrees are awarded individually, and the graduating class requests that there be no applause until the last degree is conferred.

At the Commencement Exercises, Bowdoin displays the College flag and the flags of the United States of America, the State of Maine, and the home or dual-citizenship countries or territories of graduating students—in 2013, Australia, Austria, Bulgaria, Cameroon, Canada, Colombia, Costa Rica, Ecuador, France, Germany, Hong Kong, India, Ireland, Italy, Jamaica, Japan, Latvia, Malaysia, Mexico, New Zealand, Pakistan, Panama, People's Republic of China, Puerto Rico, Republic of Korea, Russia, Singapore, Somalia, Sweden, Switzerland, Thailand, United Kingdom.

HONORANDS OF THE 2013 COMMENCEMENT

MADELEINE K. ALBRIGHT, Doctor of Laws (L.L.D.)

Madeleine Albright has been an important figure in American foreign policy for more than thirty years. In 1997 she was named the first female Secretary of State and became, at that time, the highest-ranking woman in the history of the United States government. She has served as U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations, president of the Center for National Policy, and as a member of the National Security Council. She was the chief legislative assistant to Senator Edmund S. Muskie H'57 before becoming a member of the White House staff in the Carter administration. President Obama presented her with the Presidential Medal of Freedom in May 2012. She is currently the Michael and Virginia Mortara Distinguished Professor in the Practice of Diplomacy in Georgetown University's Walsh School of Foreign Service and chair of Albright Stonebridge Group, a global strategy firm, and of Albright Capital Management LLC. Albright was born in Prague, Czechoslovakia, the daughter of Josef Korbela, a Czech diplomat. She and her family were forced to flee to England during World War II, then later sought asylum in the U.S. Albright became an American citizen in 1957. She graduated with honors from Wellesley College and earned M.A. and Ph.D. degrees at Columbia University's Department of Public Law and Government. She is the author of five New York Times bestselling books.

JEAN ARASANAYAGAM, Doctor of Letters (LITT.D.)

Jean Arasanayagam is one of Sri Lanka's most prolific and best-known contemporary writers of English-language poetry and prose. Born to a Dutch Burgher family (of Dutch and indigenous ancestry) in Sri Lanka, she graduated from the University of Peradeniya. Her husband is a Tamil, a member of a minority ethnic group in Sri Lanka, and she and her family endured the dangers and disruptions of a quarter-century of civil war between separatist Tamil forces and the Sri Lankan government. Her writings are informed by a deep understanding of the nuances and complexities of personal and family identities that reaches well beyond simple categories of race, ethnicity, class, and gender. Arasanayagam attributes the experience of being confined in a refugee camp in 1983 to her focus as a writer on the social and psychological issues that accompany displacement and dispossession. She is the author of numerous collections of poetry and has been a lecturer for several years at the ISLE (Intercollegiate Sri Lanka Education) Program offered by a consortium of colleges, including Bowdoin.

DAVID W. BLIGHT, Doctor of Humane Letters (L.H.D.)

David Blight is a leading historian of the American Civil War and its aftermath. A graduate of Michigan State University, he earned a Ph.D. at the University of Wisconsin. After teaching at Harvard and Amherst, he became Class of 1954 Professor of American History at Yale University, where he is also director of the Gilder Lehrman Center for the Study of Slavery, Resistance, and Abolition. Blight's book Race and Reunion: The Civil War in American Memory won eight prestigious book awards, including the Frederick Douglass Prize, the Bancroft Prize, the Abraham Lincoln Prize, and four awards from the Organization of American Historians. He is the author and editor of several acclaimed books on the Civil War, slavery, and the Underground Railroad. He is a member of the Board of Trustees of the New York Historical Association, the board for African American programs at Monticello, and the board of advisors for the Lincoln Bicentennial Commission, and has been a consultant for numerous documentary films.

ROSE MARIE BRAVO, Doctor of Humane Letters (L.H.D.)

Rose Marie Bravo, former CEO and vice chairman of Burberry Group Plc., has established a record of outstanding leadership in the retail industry. Born in the Bronx, she graduated from the Bronx High School of Science and then from Fordham University. She began her career as a buyer for Abraham and Strauss in 1971 and later became chair and CEO of the I. Magnin Specialty Division of R. H. Macy. She was president of Saks Fifth Avenue from 1992 to 1997, and then took on the challenge of reforming the British fashion brand Burberry as its CEO. Because of her extraordinary record of accomplishment in the retail industry, her advice and insights on effective leadership in a changing business world are in great demand. She is a member of the boards of directors of Tiffany & Co., Estée Lauder Companies, and Williams-Sonoma. She was named the most powerful woman in fashion by Time magazine in 2004 and was included in the Forbes list of “The 100 Most Powerful Women in the World” in 2005.

PHILIP W. CONKLING, Doctor of Science (Sc.D.)

Philip Conkling is the founder and president of the Island Institute in Rockland, Maine. He graduated from Harvard University in 1970 and, after teaching high school in California and working at seasonal jobs in Maine, earned a master’s degree from Yale’s School of Forestry and Environmental Studies. Conkling is the publisher of The Working Waterfront, an online and print newspaper that focuses on policy issues and current research that affect coastal communities, and is the lead editor of Island Journal, an annual magazine that explores island life through articles, essays, photographs, art, and poetry. Conkling is the author of numerous articles and author and editor of several books, including Islands in Time, a Natural and Cultural History of the Islands of the Gulf of Maine (1982) and Lobsters Great and Small—How Fishermen and Scientists Are Changing Our Understanding of a Maine Icon (2001). He is a board member of the Conservation Law Foundation and was appointed by President Obama as an alternate member of the Roosevelt Campobello International Park Commission. In 2006 he received the Distinguished Alumnus Award from the Yale School of Forestry and Environmental Studies.

C. Lee Herter was elected to Bowdoin’s Board of Overseers in 1976 as one of the first women to serve on the College’s governing boards. She was elected to the Board of Trustees in 1988 and was designated Trustee Emerita in 1996, after twenty years of dedicated service in the governance of the College. Herter graduated from the Winsor School in Boston and attended Smith College. She has a distinguished record of service to education and philanthropic causes—as a trustee of Winsor School and a trustee of St. George’s School in Newport, Rhode Island; a volunteer and committee member at Massachusetts General Hospital; and for fifteen years doing daily pro bono work in the development office at Beverly Hospital in Massachusetts. Her connections to Bowdoin are extensive and include her sons David Herter ’76 and Edward Herter ’77, daughter-in-law Lauren Tenny Herter ’82, niece Brooke Herter James ’78, four grandchildren, and her father-in-law Christian H. Herter H ’48.

HONORS IN MAJOR SUBJECTS

The Departments of Art, Biology, Chemistry, Computer Science, Earth and Oceanographic Science, English, History, Mathematics, Music, Psychology, Romance Languages, and Sociology and Anthropology, and the Biochemistry, Environmental Studies, Gender and Women's Studies, Latin American Studies, and Neuroscience Programs award only one level of departmental honors. Other departments award honors at the levels of Highest Honors, High Honors, and Honors, and the recipients are so designated. Honors project titles below have been edited to conform with Bowdoin style. Official titles of record are on file at Hawthorne-Longfellow Library.

ACADEMIC APPAREL

The formal academic attire that distinguishes faculty and graduates at academic ceremonies is a symbol at once vertical and horizontal. It stretches back into history, to the roots of academic institutions, while at the same time it forms a bond of union among contemporary academic scholars.

The gown, cap, and hood, which would certainly seem quaint today if worn on our city streets, were originally the ordinary apparel of our medieval ancestors. The gowns varied in elegance according to the rank and wealth of the owners, and the hood had the practical function of being pulled over the head for warmth. Many of the medieval universities had strict rules on the subject; at Oxford, for example, the master of arts had to swear that he owned the dress prescribed for his degree and that he would wear it on all proper occasions. Undergraduates were required to wear their gowns whenever they appeared in the public street. After the sixteenth century in Europe different styles prevailed, but the older style was retained for certain legal, official, clerical, and, especially, academic uses.

In America the gown has been used to some extent since colonial times. It was only in the late nineteenth century, however, that widespread interest—sparked perhaps by the observance in 1886 of the 250th anniversary of the founding of Harvard—brought about several developments. In 1887 an enterprising member of the graduating class of Williams College designed academic gowns for the graduates to wear at the Commencement ceremony. The garb was significant and dignified; it was both traditional and democratic; it answered a need, and it quickly became popular. In 1895 an intercollegiate code, standardizing the design and the color of each part of the academic regalia, was accepted by nearly all American colleges and universities.

The gown is usually black, and the cut of the sleeves differs for bachelors, masters, and doctors. In addition, the doctor's gown has panels of velvet (usually black) down the front and on the sleeves.

The cap is generally black, with a tassel, which is either black or the color of the field of study; a doctor's may be gold. The most common style of cap is the Oxford "mortar board," with a square flat top, but some variations are permitted.

The hood is the most distinctive part of the costume. It is made of black and trimmed with velvet. Both the length of the hood and the width of the trim vary with the level of the degree, the doctor's being the longest and having the widest velvet border. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study in which the degree is earned: for example, white for arts and letters (bachelor of arts), dark blue for philosophy, brown for fine arts, golden yellow for science, scarlet for theology. The lining of the hood is the color and style of the university that confers the degree; these are all specified in the standard code of the American Council on Education. Bowdoin College's lining is white and green to symbolize the Bowdoin pines.

Whatever the degree or university, those who don the gown and hood symbolically take their places in the long procession of scholars who have pursued truth and learning and passed it on to others. The consciousness of that fellowship is at once a reward for past efforts and an inspiration for the future.

RAISE SONGS TO BOWDOIN

Words by K. C. M. Sills, Class of 1901

New Lyrics by Anthony Antolini '63

Music by C. T. Burnett

Arranged by Thornton W. Allen

Raise songs to Bowdoin, praise her fame,
And sound abroad her glorious name;
To Bowdoin, Bowdoin lift your song,
And may the music echo long
O'er whispering pines and campus fair
With sturdy might filling the air.
Bowdoin, from birth, our nurturer and friend
To thee we pledge our love again, again.

While now amid thy halls we stay
And breathe thy spirit day by day,
Oh may we thus full worthy be
To march in that proud company
Of poets, leaders and each one
Who brings thee fame by deeds well done.
Bowdoin, from birth, our nurturer and friend
To thee we pledge our love again, again.
