Requirements for the ES Minor

The minor consist of 5 courses.

Required courses:

ES 1101 Introduction to Environmental Studies

Two ES intermediate courses (2000-2969) or higher, one of which must be outside a student's departmental major. With Environmental Studies program approval, one off-campus study course, or one semester of independent study or honors work may be used to fulfill the intermediate course requirement for the ENVS minor. Two core courses in the disciplinary area as specified below:

- natural science majors: ES 2403 Environment and Culture & ES 2330 Environmental Policy & Politics
- social science majors: ES 2201 Perspectives in Environmental Science & ES 2403 Environment & Culture
- humanities majors: ES 2201 Perspectives in Environmental Science & ES 2330 Environmental Policy & Politics

Check below after discussion with your advisor:

____ Summer Fellowships: Do you know about these opportunities, do you plan to apply?

____ Study Away: Do you plan to study away?

____ Academic Progress/ Workday: Does academic progress agree with your minor plans? If not please check with your minor advisor

AP Credit: Students with a score of five on the Environmental Science AP exam can earn one general credit if the student completes ENVS 2201 Perspectives in Environmental Science with a minimum grade of B-. To receive credit for advanced placement work, students must have their scores officially reported to the Office of the Registrar by the end of their sophomore year at Bowdoin.
