

Study Away Questionnaire

Name:

Course:

Host University:

This form helps the history department determine if your study away course merits credit towards the history major. Please provide comprehensive answers to help us with our assessment and please fill out one questionnaire for each course you would like us to consider.

1. Please describe the subject of the course. In your answer, please specify the geographic regions the class explored (Europe, Latin America, the Atlantic World, etc) and the chronological focus of the class (e.g. early modern, twentieth century).

2. What were the requirements (papers, journals, presentations, exams) for the course? What format did class usually take?

3. Did this course help you develop skills in critical thinking in your written work and in class discussions? How so?

4. Did this course help you rethink and challenge assumptions? How so?
