BOWDOIN COLLEGE
TAX DEFERRED ANNUITY PLAN
ANNUAL NOTICE REGARDING PLAN PARTICIPATION

The Plan

Bowdoin College maintains the Bowdoin College Tax Deferred Annuity (“Plan”), a tax-favored Plan under Section 403(b) of the Internal Revenue Code (“Code”), to help eligible employees save for their retirement. Employees make pre-tax contributions to the Plan pursuant to salary reduction agreements with the College. In addition, employees enter into tax-sheltered annuity contracts or custodial accounts (“individual contracts”) with one or more Vendors listed in Appendix A. Employees direct the investment of their contributions in investment alternatives offered by the Vendors. In general, the contributions and investment earnings are not subject to tax until the employee receives a distribution from the individual contract.

Who is Eligible to Participate in the Plan?

All part-time and full-time employees of the College are eligible to participate in the Plan. Individuals who are independent contractors, leased employees, or students enrolled and regularly attending classes at the College are not eligible to participate in the Plan. Students employed during the summer, outside of the academic year, are eligible to participate during that time.

Enrolling in the Plan

Participation in the Plan is completely voluntary. You may enroll in the Plan or change the amount you are contributing at any time. To enroll you must first complete an individual contract with a Vendor and then designate the amount you would like to contribute each pay period through Workday. Your participation in the Plan begins during the pay period you designate when you submit the completed enrollment through Workday.

Applications for individual contracts are available from the College’s Human Resources Department and representatives of the Vendor(s) that you select. The Vendors and their contact information are set forth in Appendix A. You must designate your initial investment alternative(s) on the individual contract.

Contributions to the Plan

The Plan accepts only pre-tax employee contributions with the exception of a Fidelity Roth 403(b). The College does not make any employer contributions to the Plan. You must contribute at least $200 per year to participate in the Plan.

You can change the amount of your pre-tax contributions or stop your pre-tax contributions to the Plan at any time by completing a new enrollment in Workday.
The change will take place based on the date you designate when you submit the completed enrollment through Workday.

You do not need to complete a new enrollment in Workday each year. If you do not complete a new enrollment, then your existing election will carry over into the next calendar year.

The Internal Revenue Service limits the annual contribution that you can make to a 403(b) plan. For 2017, the limit is $18,000 for participants under age 50 and $24,000 for participants who are age 50 or older during the calendar year.

The limits described in the preceding paragraph apply to all pre-tax contributions that you make to 403(b) plans, 401(k) plans, or Section 408 simple pension plans or retirement accounts. If you participate in more than one arrangement in any calendar year, then your total contribution to all arrangements may not exceed the applicable annual limit. For example, if you are under age 50 and contribute $8,000 in 2017 to a 403(b) or 401(k) plan maintained by another employer, then you may contribute only $10,000 to the Plan for 2017.
