Harpswell Historical Society	929 Harpswell Neck Rd. (rt. 123), Harpswell, ME 04079	Chuck Alexander, President harpwellhs@outlook.com (preferred contact) 207-833-6322	Hybrid	The Harpswell Historical Society (HHS) is a small nonprofit organization dedicated to the discovery, identification, and preservation of materials related to the history of Harpswell and its people. HHS has a museum and archives and several buildings, all cared for by a team of volunteers. To provide greater access to the photos, artifacts, and documents, HHS is cataloging its collection and planning new exhibits. https://harpwellhistorical.org/	The museum and archives hold documents that date back to the 1700s. There is a set of pre-Revolutionary War announcements, handwritten and well preserved, that HHS would like to transcribe. If this set of documents is completed quickly, there are additional options for in-person or remote work, to support the preservation and sharing of the collection.
