The Latin text quoted on the preceding page has introduced Bowdoin's Commencement Program since August 21, 1822. The names of the twenty-four graduates of the Class of 1822 were, for the most part, also translated into Latin for the program. In the early years of the College, each graduating senior was required to deliver a Commencement "part," an oration on ancient or modern topics, which was frequently given in one of the classical languages, Latin, Greek, or Hebrew. The final Latin oration was given in 1893, but the tradition of Latin survives in the language used to dedicate the Commencement Exercises and to confer the bachelor of arts degree. The translation below was provided by Associate Professor of Classics Robert B. Sobak.

May it be good, felicitous, and well-omened:*

To Janet Mills, esteemed Governor;

to the Representatives and Senators who personally preside over the arts and letters for the State of Maine;

and to the honorable and respected Trustees of Bowdoin College;

to Clayton Rose, distinguished President;

to the entire academic senate; to the venerable religious leaders;

in short, to all patrons of the human race everywhere,

the young people hereby initiated into the arts and letters most humbly dedicate these exercises.

Held in a gathering of Bowdoin College, in Brunswick, in the State of Maine, on the fifth day before the Kalends of June, in the 2022nd year of our well-being and in the 246th year of the authority of the United States of America.

* An ancient Roman formula used at the outset of a ritual to ensure its success.

DEGREES

This ancient formula is used by the President in conferring degrees:

Candidati pro gradu baccalaureali, assurgite.

Vir honorandus, hosce iuvenes, quos censeo idoneos primum ad gradum in artibus, nunc tibi offero, ut a te instructus, eos ad gradum istum admittam. Placetne? (Placet.)

Pro auctoritate mihi commissa, admitto vos ad primum gradum in artibus, et dono et concedo omnia iura, privilegia, honores atque dignitates, ad gradum istum pertinentia.

In cuius testimonium hasce membranas litteris scriptas accipite.

Candidates for the Baccalaureate degrees will rise.

(To the Chair of the Board of Trustees)

Honored sir, these young people whom I deem worthy of the first degree in Arts, I now present to you, that, if you so direct, I may admit them to that degree.

Is such your will? (It is.)

(To the Candidates)

By virtue of the authority vested in me, I now admit you to the first degree in Arts and do grant and confer upon you all the rights, privileges, honors, and dignities pertaining to that degree.

In witness whereof, receive these diplomas.

NOTE: The Baccalaureate degrees are awarded individually, and the graduating class requests that there be no applause until the last degree is conferred.

At the Commencement Exercises, Bowdoin displays the College flag and the flags of the United States of America, the State of Maine, and the home or dual-citizenship countries or territories of graduating students—in 2022, Austria, Bahamas, Brazil, Canada, China, Colombia, Egypt, Estonia, France, Germany, Greece, Honduras, Hong Kong SAR, India, Iran, Ireland, Italy, Japan, Kenya, Nepal, Nicaragua, Nigeria, Peru, Philippines, Poland, Republic of Korea (South), Romania, Russia, Rwanda, Somalia, South Africa, Spain, Sudan, Switzerland, Tanzania, Turkey, United Kingdom, and Venezuela.

HONORANDS OF THE 2022 COMMENCEMENT

KATHERINE BRADFORD, Doctor of Fine Arts (DFA)

Katherine Bradford is best known for paintings of swimmers, superheroes, and ships that critics describe as simultaneously representational and abstract, luminous, and richly metaphorical. She began her career as an artist relatively late in life, achieving her widest recognition in her seventies. Bradford began painting when she was living in Maine in the 1970s. She moved to New York City in the '80s, but returns each summer with her spouse, Jane O'Wyatt, to her home in Brunswick. Her work has been the subject of one-person shows at the Bowdoin College Museum of Art (2013) and Modern Art Museum of Fort Worth Texas (2017), and is scheduled for an upcoming survey exhibit at the Portland Museum of Art in Maine opening this June, which will travel to several venues. Her work is in the collections of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, the Brooklyn Museum, the Portland Museum (both Maine and Oregon), the Dallas Museum of Art, and the Menil Collection in Houston, Texas. Recent exhibitions include the New Orleans Biennial, Prospect 4 (2017), a solo show at CANADA in New York (2021), a group show at the Crystal Bridges Museum in Arkansas devoted to images of Superman and Superwoman (2019), and a solo exhibition at Tomio Koyama in Tokyo, Japan. Bradford was born in New York City and attended Bryn Mawr College and Purchase College, where she received an MFA. In 2011, she received a Guggenheim Fellowship, and a year later, a Joan Mitchell Foundation Award. Other awards include a Pollock Krasner Grant and two awards from the American Academy of Arts and Letters. The Bowdoin College Museum of Art recently added a Bradford painting, Fear of Dark, to its permanent collection. The painting was created in Brunswick in the summer of 2020 and was a gift to the museum from David and Barbara Roux in honor of museum codirectors Frank and Anne Goodyear.

RAQUEL JARAMILLO P'18, Doctor of Letters (Litt.D.)

Raquel Jaramillo (R. J. Palacio) P'18 is the author of the best-selling children's novel Wonder, which was adapted into a 2017 film starring Julia Roberts, Owen Wilson, and Jacob Tremblay. She has written several books based on the original Wonder characters; one of those books, White Bird: A Wonder Story, has been turned into a film starring Helen Mirren and Gillian Anderson, scheduled for release in October 2022. Jaramillo is a first-generation American (her parents immigrated from Colombia), born and raised in New York City. After graduating with a BFA in illustration from Parsons School of Design, she started a career as an illustrator and book-jacket designer and became vice president and creative director of Henry Holt adult trade books in 1990, and editorial director of children's books at Workman Publishing in 2007. Shortly after the birth of her older son, Jaramillo began illustrating her own children's books, including several picture books and a highly lauded coffee table edition of Peter Pan. Wonder was Jaramillo's first novel, which was published in 2012 under the pen name R. J. Palacio. Wonder has gone on to become an international bestseller, translated into fifty-five languages, with fifteen million copies in print worldwide, and more than six years on The New York Times bestseller list. Her story about a boy in need of a little extra kindness from the world launched the anti-bullying Choose Kind movement, which in 2015 inspired myFace, an organization devoted to helping children with facial differences, to start the Wonder Project. This program brings the book's message of kindness into schools nationwide, and has reached more than 60,000 students in the US to date.

LAURIE GAGNON LACHANCE '83, P'13, Doctor of Humane Letters (LHD)

Laurie Gagnon Lachance '83, P'13, one of Maine's leading economists, began her career with Central Maine Power, where she became the company's corporate economist. She later served as the Maine State Economist for three governors (1993–2004). From 2004 to 2012, she served as president and CEO of the Maine Development Foundation before being named president of Thomas College in Waterville, Maine, in 2012. In each of these four major roles, Lachance was the first female to hold the position. After Bowdoin, she went on to earn her MBA from Thomas College, and was awarded an honorary doctor of humane letters degree by the University of Maine at Presque Isle. An author and frequent speaker on leadership, education, and Maine's economy, Lachance was inducted into the Maine Women's Hall of Fame in 2014, made the Mainebiz NEXT list as a trailblazer in her industry in 2015, was part of Maine Magazine's "Fifty Mainers Charting the State's Future" list in 2016, and was inducted into the Junior Achievement Maine Business Hall of Fame in 2018. Laurie received the American Heart Association's Crystal Heart Award in March 2022. She serves on the boards of Educare Central Maine, Maine State Chamber, and Worthington Scholarship Foundation, and was elected to the boards of Maine Employers Mutual Insurance Company (MEMIC) in June 2018 and Bangor Savings Bank in June 2021. In 2020, Governor Janet Mills appointed Lachance cochair of Maine's Economic Recovery Committee, charged with advising the governor on how to guide Maine's economy through the pandemic. Lachance was born in Dover-Foxcroft, Maine, the granddaughter of French-Canadian immigrants, and was a first-generation college student. She and her husband, David, live in Manchester, Maine.

JANET LANGHART-COHEN, Doctor of Humane Letters (LHD)

Janet Langhart-Cohen is a television journalist and author who began her career as a fashion model and became a broadcast reporter and anchor after first reporting the weather for a Chicago station. She established the media consulting firm Langhart Communications in 2000. Langhart-Cohen is a native of Indianapolis, where she grew up in a segregated housing project. She entered the public eye in the 1960s as a model for the Ebony Fashion Fair. Within a few years she was breaking racial and gender barriers by becoming the first Black woman in America to host a nationally syndicated show, Good Day. Her broadcasting experience includes work for both ABC and NBC network television, Entertainment Tonight, and BET. Over the course of her twenty-five years in journalism, she interviewed some of the most influential newsmakers in the world, including President Bill Clinton, President Jimmy Carter, Margaret Thatcher, Rosa Parks, Oprah Winfrey, Larry King, and Barbara Walters. In 2004, she wrote her memoir, From Rage to Reason: My Life in Two Americas, which describes her personal experiences with race in America. In 2007, she and her husband—former Secretary of Defense William S. Cohen '62, H'75, P'85—wrote Love in Black and White, a memoir about race, religion, and romance, and later edited Race and Reconciliation in America. Langhart-Cohen attended Butler University, and she received an honorary degree from Emerson College in 2011. In 2009, her one-act play, Anne and Emmett, based on the lives of Anne Frank and Emmett Till, premiered at the United States Holocaust Museum. The play is an extension of her life's work to raise awareness and spur dialogue around race, reconciliation, and equality in America. She is currently working on three new plays.

JOAN BENOIT SAMUELSON '79, P'12, Doctor of Humane Letters (LHD)

Joan Benoit Samuelson '79, P'12 is the most recognizable athlete in Bowdoin's history and one of the most decorated runners in the world. Among other associations, she is a member of the National Track and Field Hall of Fame, the National Distance Running Hall of Fame, the International Scholar-Athlete Hall of Fame, the International Women's Sports Foundation Hall of Fame, and the Olympic Hall of Fame. She won the Boston Marathon in 1979 and 1983, when she set a course record that stood for eleven years. In 1984, she won the gold medal in the inaugural women's Olympic marathon in Los Angeles. She won her age group at the 2013 and 2019 Boston marathons. In 1997, Samuelson founded the TD Beach to Beacon 10K Road Race and is chair of its board of directors. The race, set in Cape Elizabeth, Maine, Samuelson's home town, attracts the world's elite runners and has received awards for its environmentally sustainable operation. She is a longtime board member of the Friends of Casco Bay and cochair of the Running Industry Diversity Coalition. Samuelson has served as a coach at Boston University and has authored two books, Running Tide (coauthor; 1987) and Joan Samuelson's Running for Women (1995). Samuelson earned her bachelor's degree in history and environmental studies from Bowdoin in 1979. She has received eight other honorary degrees and earned her master gardener certification through the University of Maine Cooperative Extension. Samuelson was elected to Bowdoin's Board of Overseers in 1995 and became a trustee in 1996. She was awarded the Bowdoin Prize, the College's highest honor, in 1985. Her many Bowdoin relatives include husband Scott Samuelson '80, father André Benoit '43, and son Anders '12. Joan and Scott Samuelson are longtime residents of Freeport, Maine.

HONORS IN MAJOR SUBJECTS

The Departments of Art, Anthropology, Biology, Chemistry, Computer Science, Earth and Oceanographic Science, English, History, Mathematics, Music, Psychology, Romance Languages and Literatures, Sociology, and Theater and Dance and the Biochemistry, Environmental Studies, Gender, Sexuality, and Women's Studies, Latin American, Caribbean, and Latinx Studies, and Neuroscience Programs award only one level of departmental honors. The Department of Religion awards at the High Honors and Honors levels only. Other departments award honors at the levels of Highest Honors, High Honors, and Honors, and the recipients are so designated. Honors project titles below have been edited to conform with Bowdoin style. Official titles of record are on file at Hawthorne–Longfellow Library.

ACADEMIC APPAREL

The formal academic attire that distinguishes faculty and graduates at academic ceremonies is a symbol at once vertical and horizontal. It stretches back into history, to the roots of academic institutions, while at the same time it forms a bond of union among contemporary academic scholars.

The gown, cap, and hood, which would certainly seem quaint today if worn on our city streets, were originally the ordinary apparel of our medieval ancestors. The gowns varied in elegance according to the rank and wealth of the owners, and the hood had the practical function of being pulled over the head for warmth. Many of the medieval universities had strict rules on the subject; at Oxford, for example, the master of arts had to swear that he owned the dress prescribed for his degree and that he would wear it on all proper occasions. Undergraduates were required to wear their gowns whenever they appeared in the public street. After the sixteenth century in Europe different styles prevailed, but the older style was retained for certain legal, official, clerical, and, especially, academic uses.

In America the gown has been used to some extent since colonial times. It was only in the late nineteenth century, however, that widespread interest—sparked perhaps by the observance in 1886 of the 250th anniversary of the founding of Harvard—brought about several developments. In 1887 an enterprising member of the graduating class of Williams College designed academic gowns for the graduates to wear at the Commencement ceremony. The garb was significant and dignified; it was both traditional and democratic; it answered a need, and it quickly became popular. In 1895 an intercollegiate code, standardizing the design and the color of each part of the academic regalia, was accepted by nearly all American colleges and universities.

The gown is usually black, and the cut of the sleeves differs for bachelors, masters, and doctors. In addition, the doctor's gown has panels of velvet (usually black) down the front and on the sleeves.

The cap is generally black, with a tassel, which is either black or the color of the field of study; a doctor's may be gold. The most common style of cap is the Oxford "mortar board," with a square flat top, but some variations are permitted.

The hood is the most distinctive part of the costume. It is made of black and trimmed with velvet. Both the length of the hood and the width of the trim vary with the level of the degree, the doctor's being the longest and having the widest velvet border. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study in which the degree is earned: for example, white for arts and letters (bachelor of arts), dark blue for philosophy, brown for fine arts, golden yellow for science, scarlet for theology. The lining of the hood is the color and style of the university that confers the degree; these are all specified in the standard code of the American Council on Education. Bowdoin College's lining is white and green to symbolize the Bowdoin pines.

Whatever the degree or university, those who don the gown and hood symbolically take their places in the long procession of scholars who have pursued truth and learning and passed it on to others. The consciousness of that fellowship is at once a reward for past efforts and an inspiration for the future.

RAISE SONGS TO BOWDOIN

Words by K. C. M. Sills, Class of 1901

New Lyrics by Anthony Antolini '63

Music by C. T. Burnett

Arranged by Thornton W. Allen

Raise songs to Bowdoin, praise her fame,
And sound abroad her glorious name;
To Bowdoin, Bowdoin lift your song,
And may the music echo long
O'er whispering pines and campus fair
With sturdy might filling the air.
Bowdoin, from birth, our nurturer and friend
To thee we pledge our love again, again.

While now amid thy halls we stay
And breathe thy spirit day by day,
Oh may we thus full worthy be
To march in that proud company
Of poets, leaders and each one
Who brings thee fame by deeds well done.
Bowdoin, from birth, our nurturer and friend
To thee we pledge our love again, again.
