The Bowdoin shield on the cover of this program is derived from the coat of arms of the Bowdoin family. Uses of the design and motto date from at least 1755, by the family of Pierre Baudouin; from before 1811, as James Bowdoin III’s bookplate; and since 1894 in Bowdoin publications. The motto, Ut aquila versus coelum, may be translated, “As an eagle [soaring] toward the heavens.”

SYDNEY B. KAROFSKY PRIZE FOR JUNIOR FACULTY
Michael J. Kolster, Assistant Professor of Art
This prize, given by members of the Karofsky family, is to be awarded annually by the dean for academic affairs, in consultation with the Appointments, Promotion, and Tenure Committee on the basis of student evaluations of teaching, to an outstanding Bowdoin teacher who “best demonstrates the ability to impart knowledge, inspire enthusiasm, and stimulate intellectual curiosity.” The prize is given to a member of the faculty who has taught at the College for at least two years.

PHI BETA KAPPA
From the Graduating Class
The Phi Beta Kappa Society, national honorary fraternity for recognition and promotion of scholarship, was founded at the College of William and Mary in 1776. The Bowdoin Chapter (Alpha of Maine), the sixth in order of establishment, was founded in 1825. Election is based primarily on scholarly achievement, and consideration is given to the student’s entire college record. The number of students elected each year does not normally exceed ten percent of the number graduating in May. Students elected to Phi Beta Kappa are expected to be persons of integrity and good moral character.

Diplomatic and Consular Officers, Retired (DACOR) Bacon House Foundation Fellowship

Anna Marie Remillard ’08

The DACOR Bacon House Foundation was established for the purpose of contributing to the development of mutual international understanding and the strengthening of ties between the people of the United States and other nations. To this end it pursues programs of a public and educational nature to enhance awareness and to foster leadership in international affairs. Each year DACOR offers graduate fellowships for study toward a master’s degree in international relations. The fellowships are for U.S. citizens, and the winners can use the fellowship for study at any accredited graduate school in the United States.

Fulbright Awards

Teaching Awards: Amy Ahearn ’08 (Malaysia), Lana Caitlin Mathis ’08 (Austria), Grace Park ’08 (South Korea), Courtney Reichert ’06 (Austria)

Research Award: Andrew George Steltzer ’08 (Japan)

Fulbright Awards provide funding for study or teaching abroad for one year to promote cross-cultural interaction and increase mutual understanding on a person-to-person basis between people of the United States and other countries through educational and cultural exchange. Proposals are evaluated based upon the extent to which the candidate and the project might help advance the program’s aim.

Thomas J. Watson Fellowship

Steven Curtis Holleran ’08

The Thomas J. Watson Fellowship Program was created in 1968 by the children of Thomas J. Watson Sr., the founder of IBM Corporation, and his wife, Jeannette K. Watson, to honor their parents’ long-standing interest in education and world affairs and to give college graduates of unusual promise the freedom to engage in a year of independent study and travel abroad following their graduation. Watson Fellows are chosen on the basis of demonstrated integrity, imagination, strong ethical character, intelligence, the capacity for vision and leadership, the promise of creative achievement and excellence within a chosen field, and the potential for humane and effective participation in the world community.

RAISE SONGS TO BOWDOIN

Words by K.C.M. Sills, Class of 1901
New Lyrics by Anthony Antolini ’63
Arr. by Thornton W. Allen

Raise songs to Bowdoin, praise her fame,
And sound abroad her glorious name;
To Bowdoin, Bowdoin lift your song,
And may the music echo long
O’er whispering pines and campus fair
With sturdy might filling the air.
Bowdoin, from birth, our nurturer and friend
To thee we pledge our love again, again.

While now amid thy halls we stay
And breathe thy spirit day by day,
Oh may we thus full worthy be
To march in that proud company
Of poets, leaders and each one
Who brings thee fame by deeds well done.
Bowdoin, from birth, our nurturer and friend
To thee we pledge our love again, again.
