Questions from the Application

Below is a preview of the Residential Life application essay questions. The suggested word limit for the essays below is 200 words.

- Please describe two jobs and/or leadership positions you have held in the past that most prepare you to contribute to the Residential Life student staff.
- This Fall 2020 semester was challenging – regardless of whether you were on campus or away. Please tell us how your semester was, what you learned about yourself, and how you remained resilient throughout this trying time.
- One goal of Residential Life is to build inclusive communities. How do you anticipate working towards this goal as a member of Residential Life? How do you anticipate being successful and where do you anticipate being challenged in this task?
- Another goal of Residential Life is to build effective teams within the residential life staff. Please talk about a time you were part of an effective team. What made it effective and what role did you play on the team?

The Office of Residential Life reserves the right to dismiss a Residential Life staff member whose work or conduct is judged to be unsatisfactory. If your employment is terminated, you will not receive the portion of your compensation for the time you do not work and you will be reassigned to an available space on campus. Any staff member who is placed on academic or social probation during the course of their employment will be required to meet with the Director of Residential and Student Life or a designee. Academic probation or social probation may result in dismissal from the Residential Life staff.

The Office of Residential Life also reserves the right to change staff assignments. Occasionally, the Director of Residential Life deems an assignment change necessary. At such times, the Office of Residential Life will attempt to be as flexible as possible with the students affected by the change.
