45th Reunion L.L. Bean Tandem Kayak Tour

After a brief demonstration where you'll learn basic strokes and techniques for paddling a two-person tandem kayak, L.L. Bean Registered Maine Guides will lead you on an interpretive tour, sharing their knowledge of the plants, wildlife and local history of Casco Bay. You'll experience a mixture of rocky islands and quiet coves together with Maine's stunning array of wildlife, including seals, osprey, and American Bald Eagles. From a wealth of stories and experience, the friendly guides will also share accounts of their many paddles across the state, giving you even more ideas for future trips. All equipment is included. This session can accommodate 28 guests. Meet at the L.L. Bean Paddling Center at 14 Marietta Ln, Freeport, ME.

10:00AM – 12:00PM 45th Reunion Bike Ride to Mere Point

Join classmates for an opportunity to burn some calories with a class bike ride to Mere Point. The 7-mile trip is open to all abilities and will cover beautiful Midcoast Maine scenery. Bike rentals available through Gorham Ski & Bike. This session can accommodate up to 35 guests. Contact Morgan Dewey (morgan.dewey@morganstanley.com) or Stan Manousos (stan@andrettikarting.com) for ride details.

- 3:30PM – 4:15PM 45th Reunion Talk: Spiritual Life at Bowdoin – Cleaveland 151, Druckenmiller Hall
With about 40 religious/spiritual traditions represented in the student body, how does Bowdoin help students stay in relationship with the religious selves that they brought with them to the College? How does it support students who are seeking meaning outside of formal religion? How has it supported students through the spiritual and emotional crises of the deaths of two of their classmates during what was already a public health crisis? Speakers include Rev. Eduardo Pazos Palma, Assistant Dean of Student Affairs for Inclusion and Diversity and Director of Multicultural Student Life; Rev. Robert Ives '69, Bowdoin's former Director of Religious and Spiritual Life; Janet Lohman, Senior Vice President and Dean for Student Affairs; and moderated by Macauley Lord '77.
