

Outside Scholarships

Bowdoin's policy aims to let students benefit from their outside scholarship as much as possible. Your Bowdoin Grant is only reduced if:

YOUR TOTAL FINANCIAL AID EXCEEDS THE COST OF ATTENDANCE*
OR FEDERAL REGULATIONS REQUIRE US TO DO SO

*COST OF ATTENDANCE = Tuition/Fees + Room + Books/Supplies + Meals + Personal Expenses + Transportation

Have you wondered about how to find outside scholarships and whether it's even worth pursuing? We think it is—and we have recommendations to help you.

In what circumstances would federal regulations require a Bowdoin Grant to be reduced?

A Bowdoin Grant is unlikely to be reduced for a student who does not receive federal grant aid, including Pell Grant and Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant. Please contact the Student Aid Office (SAO) at sao@bowdoin.edu or 207-725-3144 if you want to discuss your specific circumstances.

Do outside scholarships impact federal loan eligibility?

Receiving an outside scholarship can reduce a student's eligibility for subsidized federal loans, including the Federal Direct Subsidized Loan and the Federal Perkins Loan. It will not reduce eligibility for the Federal Direct Unsubsidized Loan or the Parent PLUS Loan, unless total resources exceed the cost of attendance.

How are outside scholarships applied to my financial aid package?

In most cases, outside scholarships first replace your summer work and campus job expectations, which are $2,300 and $1,900, respectively. If the scholarship exceeds $4,200, then it reduces either the parent contribution or the Bowdoin Grant, depending on what federal regulations require.

When are outside scholarships usually applied to the student's financial aid package?

- Bowdoin does not generally add outside scholarships to a student's financial aid package until the Bursar's Office receives payment from the organization providing the scholarship.
- If you know you are receiving an outside scholarship, complete the Student Payment Survey for the Bursar's Office.
- Doing so will reduce the amount your family owes by the payment due date.
- The link to this survey is distributed with each semester's bill.
- Please note: If an outside scholarship does not materialize, your family will be required to pay the Bursar's Office the amount that you anticipated for the scholarship.

Are tuition benefits considered outside scholarships?

No, tuition benefits from a parent's employer are considered to be a family resource and are a dollar-for-dollar replacement of the student's Bowdoin Grant.
