

Getting Help After a Sexual Assault

You have options.

If you have experienced sexual misconduct during your time attending Bowdoin, you may consider pursuing any or all of these options.

If you are in immediate danger, call 911.

Bowdoin College Title IX Reporting

You may make a report to Title IX by:

Completing an Anonymous Online Report:

bowdoin.edu/title-ix/report

Contacting the Title IX Coordinator:

Benje Douglas
Dudley Coe, Room 119
bdouglas@bowdoin.edu
207-721-5189

Resources for Support

The following resources can help you navigate campus and community services and options:

Privileged* Resources On Campus:

- Counseling Center _____ 207-725-3145, 207-725-3314
- Health Center _____ 207-725-3770, 207-725-3314
- Eduardo Pazos Palma ____ epazos, 30 College
- Lisa Peterson _____ lpeters, Dudley Coe
- Rachel Reinke _____ rreinke, 24 College
- Kate Stern _____ kstern, 24 College

Privileged* and Confidential Resources Off Campus:

SASSMM
Sexual Assault Support Services of Midcoast Maine
800-822-5999
207-725-1500

Through These Doors
Domestic Violence Resource Center
800-537-6066
207-721-0199

These resources do not make reports to the Bowdoin Title IX office.

24/7 Emergency Response

You may make a report to:

Brunswick Police Department

207-727-5521

Bowdoin Office of Safety and Security

207-725-3500

You may seek medical attention, make a report, and/or complete a forensic exam at:

Midcoast Hospital

123 Medical Center Dr, Brunswick, Maine
207-373-6000

More information can be found at bowdoin.edu/title-ix