the place of her interment, with the following inscription thereon:—
 This humble stone, in memory of
 ELIZABETH WHITMAN,
 Is inscribed by her weeping friends,
 To whom she endeared herself
 By uncommon tenderness and affection.
 Endowed with superiour genius and accomplishments,
 She was still more distinguished by humility
 and benevolence.
 Let Candour throw a veil over her frailties,
 For great was her charity to others.
 She lived an example of calm resignation,
 And sustained the last painful scene,
 Far from every friend.
 Her departure was on the 25th of July,
 A. D. 1788.
 In the 37th year of her age;
 The tears of strangers watered her grave.
